

BOOK REPORT

Name: _____

Grade: _____ Date: _____

Book title: _____

Author: _____

- The book you read must be at your grade reading level.
 - You must use good penmanship. No typing. No word-processing.
 - You must demonstrate clarity of thought. You must be understandable.
 - Book reports are due every two weeks, prior to the first training session that week.
 - If no report is turned in, you will not be admitted to class until you have turned it in.
 - These rules must all be followed. No excuses. No exceptions.
-

Briefly describe in one or two sentences what happens in the story. Write legibly and be clear.

(Example from Moby Dick: A sailor signs up for a voyage on a whaling ship, only to find that the captain of the ship is obsessed with killing the white whale that maimed him.)

(Example from Matrix: An ordinary guy discovers that the world he knows is only a fantasy created by intelligent machines in order to peacefully enslave humanity.)

Briefly describe in one or two sentences what you believe to be the message of the story. Write legibly and be clear.

(Example from Moby Dick: The pursuit of revenge leads to personal destruction.)

(Example from Matrix: What we perceive is not necessarily the truth. In fact, it is sometimes completely wrong.)
