

DOJO REPORT

Name: _____

Grade: _____ Date: _____

Name of Dojo: _____

Name of style: _____

Sensei: _____

- Remember: there are many different paths through the forest. Not all are the same.
 - That having been said, the dojo you visit must practice some form of martial art.
 - You must BE RESPECTFUL and introduce yourself to whoever is in charge.
 - If permitted to do so by whoever is in charge, you must AT LEAST watch a full class, from beginning to end.
 - If you are permitted to do so by whoever is in charge, feel free to train at the dojo you are visiting.
 - If you are allowed to train, wear a WHITE BELT and do your best.
 - If you are only allowed to observe, do your best.
 - This report can be submitted in place of one regular book report.
 - As always, you must use good penmanship. No typing. No word-processing.
 - You must demonstrate clarity of thought. You must be understandable.
 - These rules must all be followed. No excuses. No exceptions.
-

Briefly describe in one or two sentences how this dojo is similar to ours.

Briefly describe in one or two sentences how this dojo is NOT similar to ours.

Briefly describe in one or two sentences something you've learned from this comparison.